Bildraum Bodensee presented

JUDITH P. FISCHER | HULA HOOP

opening

Thursday, September 16, 7 p.m.

Guided tours by the artist

Friday, September 17th, 3 p.m. and 5 p.m.

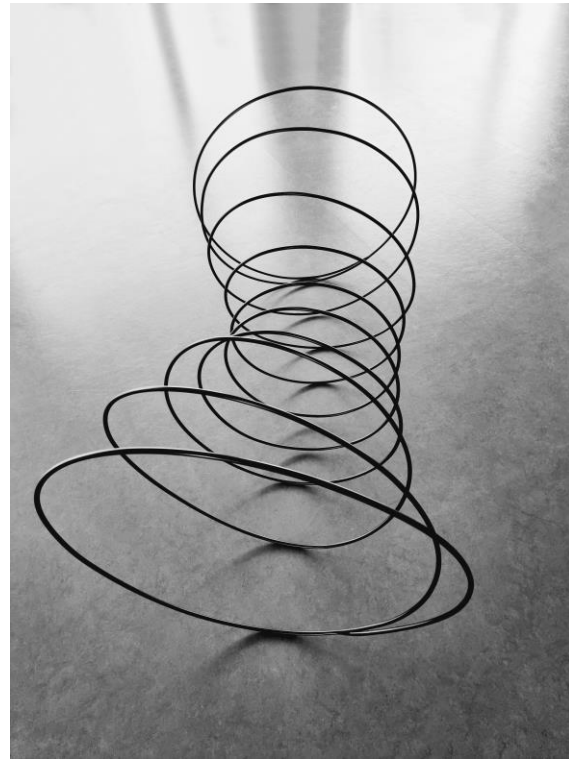

In her objects and sculptures, Judith P. Fischer shows a reduced, yet highly sensual language of forms. Construction and haptics are not in conflict, but rather merge theme and form into a kind of logical-symbiotic overall expression with a fascinating effect. In the exhibition HULA HOOP, the sculptor combines the shape of the hula hoop with its function, which creates associations with movement, play and pleasure. The solo exhibition in the Bildraum Bodensee gathers current works by Judith P. Fischer from the years 2020/2021 and relates them to the regional culture of Vorarlberg.

Duration of the exhibition: September 17 to October 28, 2021

Artist Talk and Finissage: Thursday, October 28, 2021

Judith P. Fischer (born and raised in Linz) lives and works in Vienna and Lower Austria. The artist studied sculpture at the University of Applied Arts in Vienna (Diploma 1991) and singing at the University of Music and Performing Arts (Diploma 1990), as well as art history at the University of Vienna. She is, among other things, the winner of the Trakl Promotion Prize of the State of Salzburg, the Pfann-Ohmann Prize for interdisciplinary art in public space and the Culture Prize for Fine Arts of Lower Austria (recognized in 2000). Fischer is represented in numerous group and solo exhibitions in Austria and neighboring countries, such as B. 2021 "From the line to the space", zsart Gallery / Vienna, "Wild Childhood", LENTOS Art Museum / Linz, "2GETHER", solo exhibition, Eboran Gallery / Salzburg.

Another important part of sculptural practice is art in public spaces. In 2019, Judith P. Fischer realized the mural "together" for a residential complex in Salzburg, 2015 the memorial "MUTIARA" in the parish church of Schönau / Upper Austria, 2013 the Corten steel sculpture "Gate" in St. Pölten, 2011 a "bell ornament" for the three bells of the Lichtenberg parish in Upper Austria.

Judith P. Fischer is a member of the Society of Fine Artists / Künstlerhaus Wien, IG Bildende Kunst and BILDRECHT.
